Standard string set-ups

Synthetic gut £23.00 A full bed of synthetic gut offers good longevity and value for money, as well as an effective blend of control and power. Gosen Proform Tuff	Co-polyester £28.00 Maximises the spin potential, combined with great control and durability. The stiffness of this string type makes it unsuitable for players prone to tennis elbow. Babolat RPM Blast
Multifilament £28.00 Great combination of power and control, less long lasting. Ideal arm-friendly string for those looking for a little extra 'pop'. Vökl Power-Fiber II	Hybrid £26.00 Typically, a synthetic gut is used in the crosses to soften up the string bed giving a better blend of stiffness (for spin) and power. Babolat RPM Blast, Gosen Proform Tuff
